

How Switching to Würk's Solutions Empowers Business Scalability and Confidence

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Quality Roots, a rapidly expanding Michigan-based company, struggled with payroll and HR inefficiencies before partnering with Würk. Their previous provider created significant challenges, including payroll tax errors, delayed filings, complicated onboarding, inadequate responsive support, and time-consuming payroll processes.

By implementing Würk's comprehensive payroll and HR platform, Quality Roots eliminated compliance risks, gained responsive support, streamlined onboarding, and improved payroll accuracy. Today, the company benefits from time savings, reduced administrative burden, and a scalable solution that supports their long-term growth.

BUSINESS CHALLENGES

Quality Roots had been relying on their previous payroll provider to manage payroll taxes, onboarding, and employee transfers, but mounting issues made day-to-day operations increasingly difficult. What were their biggest challenges?

- 1. Payroll taxes were not filed or paid on time, leading to financial penalties and compliance risks
- 2. Onboarding errors required manual corrections, slowing down new hire processing and increasing the administrative burden
- 3. Support was unresponsive and siloed, making it difficult to resolve payroll and tax issues efficiently

Despite repeated efforts to address these problems, issues persisted, and the company continued to lose valuable time, had compliance anxiety, and experienced financial strain. Quality Roots needed a solution that would streamline payroll, enhance support, and facilitate growth without recurring operational headaches.

SOLUTION

Switching to Würk transformed Quality Roots' payroll and HR operations. They were able to leave behind endless payroll headaches and discovered a partner who helped navigate the challenges of a fast-growing, multi-entity business. Now payroll taxes are filed automatically and accurately, onboarding is a breeze, and employee transfers happen in seconds, not days. The support team is lightning-fast, knowledgeable, and always ready to help, so problems get solved before they become crises.

With Würk's industry expertise and multi-state compliance, Quality Roots finally had the confidence to double its entities and the freedom to focus on growth instead of putting out fires. For any business ready to leave payroll pain behind, Würk isn't just a provider; they're a partner in your success.

“The previous payroll provider would often file our taxes late or sometimes not at all, making Quality Roots responsible for unforeseen fees and filings. Since switching to Würk, they have saved us from costly penalties and interest fees!” - Jonathan
